. Produced by Santi Garcia at Ultramarinos Costa Brava Studios (Sant Feliu de Guíxols).

These nine songs, once recorded (as usual for the band, by Santi Garcia), are already available for digital downloadings since this past March. After that, and before summer, different record labels around the world (Lollipop Records in France, Indierect Records in the USA and Lone Star in Germany) will release different and exclusive 7-inch singles, with one or two tracks per single. In september, BCore will release the whole CD with 9 songs. The jazzy and latin touch of "When the shadows cross the river", the post-hardcore landscapes of "Your best friend is dead", the indie simplicity of "Old man", the bossanova-lounge of "Summer days" and the covers of Music Machine and Los Canarios prove that, since some months on we're discovering Tokyo Sex Destruction as brave, imaginative and prolific like never before.

As a extra stuff include their out of print MCD "The big red box for the syndicate of emotions" and a song from their split single with Zeidun.
